Dear Madam:-

Your favor of September 16th at hand concerning associate membership for life in our Society. The proposition that you make interests me, and I would be very glad to make an appointment any time except Monday, September 23rd, with you to look over your coins.

Yours very truly,

Curator.

Miss Enid Vandell,

New York.

Dear Madam:-

I am taking the liberty of writing you again as I have not heard from you concerning making an appointment to look over your coins and medals of Napoleon that you suggested in your letter of September 16th. As I then stated, your proposition to become a life associate appealed to us as favorable. I am probably free any evening except Thursdays.

I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

Curator.

Dear Sir

In answer to yours of the 3rd December. I have been trying to find time to show you the coins and as it does not seem possible - I am sending you some under separate cover registered. Enclosed a list of them - They are chiefly interesting as a collection of portrait heads of Napoleon - The centesimo Italian is very rare - I hope they will be of enough value for you to accept me as a life member. If not would you care to purchase them and at what price?

Yours very truly

Enid Yandell

My dear Miss Vandell:-

Please pardon the delay in acknowledging the receipt of your coins and letter. Sickness and the rush of business attending our annual meeting delayed this reply.

I have looked over the French coins and find that we have all but one, and I therefore do not feel warranted in buying these for the Society especially as we are not supposed to buy coins duplicating ours to any extent. I am very sorry that we can not make use of your offer to accept these in lieu of life membership.

We would be most pleased to have you become a member, and trust that you can see your way clear to belong to our Society.

In a few days I will return the coins to you by our boy. He unfortunately is out sick at the present.

Yours very truly,

Curator.
